

Michael Koepfel Appointed as Vice Chair of the Business Valuation & Litigation Services Committee for the New York State Society of CPAs

The New York State Society of Certified Public Accountants (NYSSCPA) recently announced the appointment of Michael Koepfel as the new Vice Chair of the Business Valuation and Litigation Services Committee.

With an extensive background in accounting and a proven track record of leadership, Michael Koepfel brings a wealth of experience to his new role. As Vice Chair, he will play a pivotal role in guiding the committee's initiatives, fostering collaboration among professionals, and contributing to the advancement of best practices in business valuation and litigation services.

The Business Valuation and Litigation Services Committee at NYSSCPA is committed to promoting excellence in business valuation, forensic accounting, and litigation support. Michael Koepfel's appointment reflects the organization's commitment to maintaining high standards and providing members with the resources needed to excel in their professional endeavors.

For more information about the New York State Society of Certified Public Accountants and its committees, please visit <https://www.nyscpa.org/>